Parish Mass Attendance — A Heartening Sign of Growth and Faith Over the past few years, it has been truly inspiring to see so many gather to celebrate the Holy Eucharist — “the source and summit of the Christian life” (Second Vatican Council, LG. 11). Our total Mass attendance for January to December 2025 reached 11,869, a wonderful sign of the vitality and commitment within our parish community.

For comparison: 2023: 11,438 | 2024: 10,773 | 2025: 11,869

These figures tell a hopeful story of renewed participation, growing confidence, and a shared desire to worship God together as one family in Christ. Whether you attend every week, have recently returned, or have just begun to explore the faith your presence matters profoundly. Let us continue to build on this encouraging momentum throughout 2026, keeping our eyes fixed on Christ and our hearts open to those yet to join us. With gratitude for your faith and witness may the Lord bless and sustain us in every good work.

HOLY SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM A date and time for your child's Baptism can be arranged once you have completed the parish form and begun to establish a relationship with the parish community. The choice of godparents is very important, as they are called to be role models in the Christian life. Normally, two godparents are chosen; they must be practising Catholics, at least 16 yrs old, and have received the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. Parents have the primary responsibility of handing on the faith to their children, both in teaching and in practice. Catholic schools exist to support you in this task, but they cannot replace your example, especially your faithful commitment to the Mass, which is the best instruction you can give your child. If, after reflecting on this, you wish to present your child for Baptism, please see Canon Larkin after Mass for the Pre-Baptism form.

Readings at Mass

First reading Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the Lord: Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his law.

‘I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness;
I will take you by the hand and keep you;
I will give you as a covenant for the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.’

Responsorial Psalm Ps 29(28):1-2. 3ac-4. 3b, 9b-10. R11b

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Ascribe to the Lord, you heavenly powers,
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name;
bow down before the Lord, majestic in holiness.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

The voice of the Lord upon the waters,
the Lord on the immensity of waters;
the voice of the Lord full of power;
the voice of the Lord full of splendour.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

The God of glory thunders;
in his temple they all cry, ‘Glory!’
The Lord sits enthroned above the flood;
the Lord sits as king for ever.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Second reading Acts 10:34-38

In those days: Peter opened his mouth and said: ‘Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all — you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed:

how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.'

Gospel Acclamation Cf. Mark 9:7

Alleluia, alleluia.

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered:

'This is my beloved Son; listen to him'.

Alleluia.

Gospel Matthew 3:13-17

At that time: Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptised, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.'
